Took Tim his favorite cereal, Cap'n Crunch. He's not sure about giving a speech to his class.
Helped Tim with speech. Told him to pick a topic he enjoys. Tim picked mountain bikes. We had a bowl of my delicious cereal.
Sent blue suit to cleaners.
Tim's speech is getting better. Got him to imagine his audience in their underwear so he wouldn't be so nervous. Brought Tim 2 more boxes of Crunch. He loves that sweet crunchy taste!
Tim can't wait to give speech. Maybe all he needed was to Crunch up his confidence. Cleaned my room. Have to stop eating my cereal in bed.
Tim's speech was terrific! Got applause from the whole class. I knew he could do it. Weekend! Time to go to national speed boat races!

Please include your name, age and address, though we will gladly withhold that information upon request.

Dear Marvelous World of Disney,

I just finished reading issue #2 and I must commend you on a fabulous job. The Darkwing Duck story was fit to be animated! The art of Andres Klacik reminds me of the great art of Felix the Cat mogul, Otto Messmer. I think it's great!

Until Goofy and Launchpad become a surgical team, Make Mine Marvel!

Scott Underwood, age 17
Langley, BC, Canada

You're a man of good taste, Scott! It's our pleasure to bring you outstanding artwork and storylines that excite you beyond belief!

Dear THE DISNEY AFTERNOON,

Your comic is so wonderful, I had to write to you! The stories and the art are great. John Blair Moore and Andres Klacik are fantastic at penciling Darkwing Duck! By the way, is there any chance you will be featuring any long Goof Troop Adventures? I would also like to see more of Bonkers, Ducktales and Rescue Rangers

One more question — are you planning on featuring any Shnookums & Meat stories?

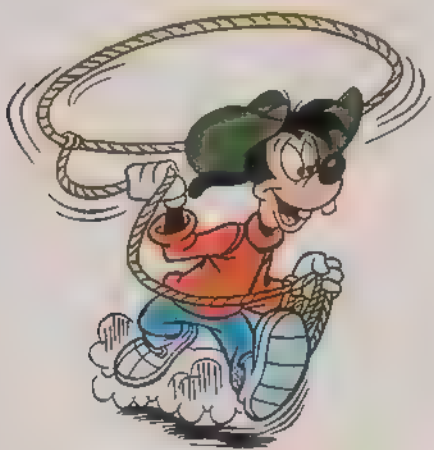
Peter Hocking, age 14
Moosic, PA

Thanks for the compliments, Peter! We couldn't agree more — John Blair Moore and Andre Klacik are a treasure!

Some of your other DISNEY AFTERNOON favorites appear in this very issue! Duck Tales and the Rescue Rangers will each be featured in an upcoming cover story, so keep reading! As for Shnookums & Meat, there's been some talk about them barking their way into TDA — we'll keep you posted! In the meantime, we'll see you right here next month!

Dear Marvel,

THE DISNEY AFTERNOON is my #1 favorite all time cartoon/comic ever! I was wondering if you'd consider making comic books from the Gargoyles, Animaniacs or Mighty Max? I think all three would make great comics!



April Malbon, age 15
Newburyport, MA

Nice to hear from you again, April! Marvel's GARGOYLES comic soared onto the shelves in December 94' and is wowing people all across America! Be sure to get your hands on the first three spectacular issues penciled by Amanda Conner and written by Martin Pasko. We're bonkers about it and have the utmost confidence you will too! And if it's non-stop fun and adventure you seek be sure not to miss our other Marvel/Disney titles — BEAUTY & THE BEAST, ALADDIN and THE LITTLE MERMAID!

Dear Marvel Comics,

I really enjoy THE DISNEY AFTERNOON! Andres Klacik does a very good job on the art! I have always liked Darkwing Duck and I am thrilled to see him on paper. I missed the first issue and I was hoping you could tell me where to get it!

Zachary Schaff, age 11
Arascodaro, CA

That's a good question, Zachary! First, try checking with your local comic book shops and newsstands for THE DISNEY AFTERNOON #1 — sometimes they carry back issues. If you can't find it, be sure to ask! Often a retailer can order it for you!

Whether busting the bad guys on paper or TV, Darkwing will always fly at great altitudes with us, too. And who better to bring him to us than the featherific Andres Klacik! To guarantee you don't miss any of the future issues of TDA, you may want to become a subscriber. TDA will come right to you in the mail every month! Simply fill out the subscription form in this very issue and mail it in. Be sure to check with a parent or adult first!

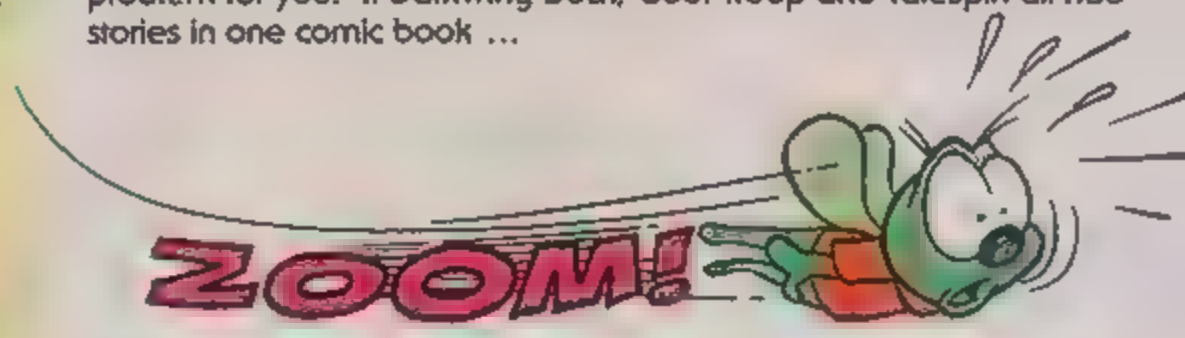
Dear Sarra,

I can't begin to tell you how much I enjoy THE DISNEY AFTERNOON! It is such a pleasure to read. I have a routine for reading it. I usually get home from school around 3:00 and before I do my homework I grab the latest issue, and read it over and over again before I have to start plugging away at my studies! Thanks, for giving me the motivation needed to do the ever-so-dreaded math word problems.

See you next time around!

Allison Decker, age 13
Island Heights, NJ

Glad we can help, Allison! We'd like to thank you, for if it weren't for fans like you, there wouldn't be TDA! Here's a word problem for you: If Darkwing Duck, Goof Troop and TaleSpin all had stories in one comic book ...



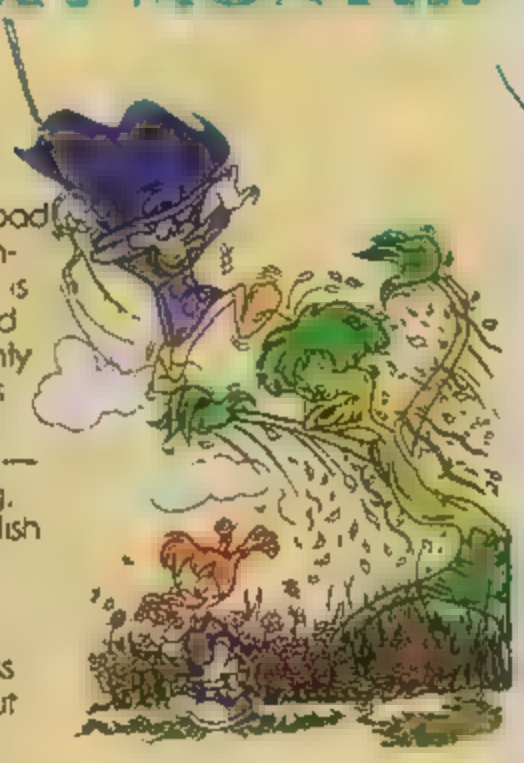
Dear Darkwing Duck,

I have been a fan of yours since I was a little kid! I'm so happy that you have finally made it to a comic book. What took Disney so long to realize that you belong at Marvel, the king of comics? Now I can watch you both on TV and in THE DISNEY AFTERNOON. It is sooooo great to see John Blair Moore drawing you. I think he does a wonderful job bringing your personality to life on paper! Well, keep at those zany adventures that make me roll over with laughter!

Lesley Neilson, age 11
Columbia, SC

THE DISNEY AFTERNOON is here to stay, Lesley! John Blair Moore and Andre Kladik know how to feather Darkwing well and will keep him flying tall!

NEXT MONTH:



Big bad Bushroot is back, and there's only one duck who can stop him — Darkwing, that devilish doer of good deeds! Don't miss the all-out action in "Beating Beets!"

THE MARVELOUS WORLD OF DISNEY
